

JOHNNY'S LETTER

new york.—theres more than 1 way to tell bad news and a feller named Jim mahoney got the rong way & his face all punched in so even his wife didnt know him when he got out of the hospital it is a verry sad storey the wimmen that was arested for beeting up jim told about it next morning in pollee cort

the day befor mr lane who worked in the same mill with jim got killed & the fourman says to jim go and tell his wife

jim goes tto mrs lane's house & as soon as she comes to the door hollers your old man has been killed

& she skreems while the 2 indies with her try to comfort her by saying maybe it aint so bad as that which looks to jim like they didnt beleeve him so he says i oughter know for 1 of his legs is mashed & his head is all bloody & i gess evry bone in his body is broken & then mrs. lane does faint away

jim just kept rite on telling all the grewsome detales about it until 1 woman hits him on the head to make him shut up, and sevrul help her

jim has em arested

& it turned out that mr. lane was only bad hurt & his wife was so skeared that they had to take her to the hospital too

jim went to the hospital too, to get his face patched up

& evrybody, inkluding the judge, was glad jim had to go

FATAL.

A Newark firm, doing a big business in accident insurance, received this note from one of its clients a few days ago:

"I received a fatal accident to my hand. Have been looking for you to adjust damages. Please come soon. I don't want it to heal till you have seen it, and it is quite a job to keep it bound up. So please attend to it promptly before it gets well."

CHESTNUT CHARLIE

H-N-M!!

HA-AW-AW-HA-A-A-A-

WELL, WHY ALL THE LAWYTER?

HERE IT SAYS:—
WHAT IS IT
WHEN BROKE CAN NEVER BE MENDED?

AN EGG!!

